MAH QUOTES: “This was a pretty good weekend for us. We didn’t play great or up to our capabilities, but we fought hard and were pretty tough mentally and were able to win a lot of matches. At this point in the season, we really just need to compete and work the new guys in as best we can. I was really pleased with both of our newcomers – Zach Frisch and Francisco Ortiz really played well in singles and had some moments in doubles. They ran out of gas a little bit in their last match, but again – it’s early and those things will happen. They have the potential to be an outstanding doubles team, but we have a lot of work to do there.

Martin (Bostrom) and Michael Tiu really battled injuries and illness all weekend. I’m proud of them for hanging in there and competing at less than 100%.

We weren’t able to play a single home match in Macomb last spring, due to weather, so it was nice to get to play on the home courts again and to get some people out to watch and support us. It’s great to honor Coach Peterson, who again met with our team after the tournament and gave us his observations and impressions.”
