

TROY FIRE
RIP N. REED
 11/11/01
 :60

VIDEO	[SEGMENT TIME]	AUDIO	[TRT]
AERIAL LS TRACKING SHOT OF TRU-TONE FACTORY IN FLAMES (#3, 4:15) KEY GRAPHICS: TROY, IL	[:10]	REED: A huge fire in Troy, Illinois, has caused more than three million dollars in damages. Authorities are still investigating what was described as "suspicious" circumstances at the Tru-Tone paint factory.	[:10]
LS OF BURNING FACTORY, FIRE ENGINES AND FIREMEN AT WORK (#1, 3:14)	[:04]	This four-alarm blaze lit up the sky over Troy early this morning. A security guard called the fire department at 4:30, and there
CU OF WINDOW WITH FLAMES (#2, 10:22) KEY GRAPHICS: RIP REED, NEWSWATCH	[:04]	was already a roaring inferno when firefighters arrived ten minutes later. The
MS OTS FIREFIGHTER (#2, 1:36)	[:06]	source of the fire is unknown, and they say they'll investigate whether arson was the
MLS WATER SPRAYING INTO SMOKE (#2, 11:41)	[:04]	cause.	[:28]
MS CHIEF SHOUTING ORDERS (#2, 4:15)	[:03]	Chief Jed Krystowiak (Kris-TOH-wee-ak)
TWO SHOT, REED AND CHIEF (#2, 5:02)	[:04]	said his men battled the flames for five
MCU KRYSTOWIAK (#2, 6:15)		hours before they brought it under control:	[:35]
KEY GRAPHICS: JED KRYSTOWIAK TROY FIRE CHIEF	[:12]	KRYSTOWIAK NQ: "We couldn't start..." OUT Q: "... before we got here." (17:51)	[:47]
REED STANDUP IN FRONT OF TRU-TONE SIGN (#2, 21:06)	[:13]	REED: Fortunately, no one was injured. Police and fire officials – including arson specialists from the state bureau in Springfield – say they'll have a full report by the end of the week. In Troy, I'm Rip Reed for Newswatch	[:60]