College of Arts and Sciences Department of Mathematics & Statistics

Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, a comprehensive state university 20 miles from downtown St. Louis, Missouri, invites applications for a tenure-track position at the rank of assistant or associate professor beginning August 2010. We will consider applicants who have a strong commitment to teaching, a demonstrated capacity to perform research, record of involvement in math education at the P-12 level, and interest in student teaching supervision. The applicant should have a Ph.D. in Math Education, Mathematics, or Statistics. For those with a Ph.D. in Math Education, we require a Master's in Mathematics or Statistics. For those with a Ph.D. in Mathematics or Statistics, candidates must have experience with teaching at the P-12 level or working with math content or math methods courses for preservice elementary or secondary teachers.

The Department of Mathematics and Statistics has 19 tenure or tenure-track faculty members and offers undergraduate programs in mathematics, applied mathematics, statistics, actuarial science, and secondary education, and master's programs in mathematics, statistics and operations research, applied and computational mathematics, and post secondary mathematics.
