A GRADE OF C OR BETTER IS REQUIRED IN ALL ANTHROPOLOGY COURSES.

+ Course is only offered during fall semesters.

Course is only offered during spring semesters.

* If primarily interested in biological anthropology or archaeology, ANTH 360a/b and ANTH 325 should be taken during the junior year instead of ANTH 301. If primarily interested in cultural or linguistic anthropology, ANTH 300 and ANTH 301 should be taken in the junior year instead of ANTH 360a/b.

FIELD SCHOOL: The Bachelor of Science degree requires 9 hours of field school credit. The Department offers three field schools, one in archaeology (ANTH 375 and ANTH 475), one in biological anthropology (ANTH 374 and ANTH 474), and one in ethnography (ANTH 373 and ANTH 473). Field schools are taught during the summer, and typically only one field school is offered each summer. Students simultaneously register for the introductory and the advanced hours if they want to take all 9 hours in one field school area. Since the introductory courses (373, 374, and 375) carry sliding credit, it is also possible for a student in two consecutive summers to take the introductory courses in two areas and the advanced in only one to complete the required 9 hours.

Declaring an Anthropology Major: To declare a major in Anthropology, it is necessary to have:

1. Completed all Academic Development courses required by the University;
2. Completed any required courses to address high school deficiencies;
3. A cumulative grade average of at least 2.0 (on a 4.0 scale).
