* Course taken to fulfill this requirement may also satisfy another General Education requirement. Refer to the SIUE Undergraduate Catalog for a list of approved courses.

 MUS 100 - Concert/convocation requirement. Must contact the Music Department.

+ Students will continue with class piano until proficiency is satisfied; thereafter, any instrument or voice is permitted. Students are expected to enroll for applied study for a total of 6 semesters, not including class piano. Voice students must also take MUS 139 - Diction.

++ A program of electives must be approved by a faculty committee. Students with an emphasis in composition normally elect MUS 412; those with an emphasis in theory normally elect MUS 481.

Generally students take one year each of French or German.

Note: This guide provides only a suggested course of study. This guide should be used in consultation with an adviser and the SIUE Undergraduate Catalog.

Declaring a Music Theory and Composition Major: To declare a Music Theory & Composition major, it is necessary to have:

1. Completed all Academic Development courses required by the University;
2. Completed any required courses to address high school deficiencies;
3. A cumulative grade point average of 2.0 (on a 4.0 scale);
4. A letter of authorization from the Music Department.

Students seeking admission to any degree program in music must perform an acceptable audition prior to admission. Students are not permitted to register for private lessons until they complete the audition requirement. To schedule an audition, please write or call the Music Department at 650-3900. Transfer students must take a placement test in music theory (written and aural) and class piano.

For further information, contact the Music Department, DH 2104, 650-3900.
