

SIUE's College of Arts and Sciences, in conjunction with Arts and Issues and the Greater St. Louis Humanities Festival, proudly present:

Thinking about Community

Thursday, October 1, 2015

Maple-Dogwood Room, Morris University Center

Larry LaFond Rediscovering Academic Community	10:00-10:30am
Lora Smallman, Sarah Park, Steve Kerber Community and Immigration in the 19th-Century Madison County, Illinois: Digitization of Naturalization Records and Creation of a Data Set	11:00-12:15pm
J. Debbie Mann and Chance Goodwin Uniquely Quebec: Linguistic and Cultural Coexistence in the Novels of Louise Penny	12:30-1:00pm
Jessica DeSpain, Sharon Locke, Georgia Bracey, Matthew Johnson, Liza Cummings, and Howard Rambsy The Digital East St. Louis Project: An Interdisciplinary Outreach Project Focuses on the Digital Humanities and Place-Based Education	2:00-3:15pm
Cory Willmott, Julie Holt, Suzanne Kutterer-Siburt, Ardina Moore (Quapaw Tribe of Oklahoma) The Mounds-America's First Cities Project	3:30-4:45pm
Aqui y Alla [Here and There] Special Film Screening (Introduced by Mariana Solares)	5:00-7:00pm

Keynote Address on Communities:

Amy Hunter
Director, Racial Justice, YWCA Metropolitan St. Louis
7:30-8:30pm

Concurrent Sessions:

Hickory-Hackberry Room, Morris University Center

Shelly Goebel-Parker, Kathryn Bentley, Judy McGrath, Roseann Weiss 12:15-1:30pm
"With Not For" - A Community Art Exhibition

Kathryn Bentley, Kenneth Coleman, Quincy Gordon, & Avalon Palmer 2:00-2:45pm
Black Theatre Workshop Touring Ensemble - Performance
"A Beautiful Day in the Neighborhood"

Jeff Skoblow 3:30-4:30pm
Poetry and Community

The 11th Annual College of Arts and Sciences Colloquium would not have been possible without the generous support of Dean Greg Budzban, Arts and Issues, Grant Andree, CAS Copy Services, and the 2015 Colloquium Steering Committee:

Kathryn Bentley, Carolina Rocha, Helena Gurfinkel, James Wulfson, Nancy Lutz, Sorin Nastasia, and Larry LaFond.

Special thanks also to Barbara Nwacha, Art and Design, for the colloquium logo design

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY
EDWARDSVILLE

THE GREATER ST. LOUIS
HUMANITIES
festival