

College of Arts and Sciences
Colloquium – April 2 & 3
In the Morris University Center

Thinking About Movement

Wednesday, April 2, 2014

Ongoing All Day Exhibit

Defining Movement:
Thinking About Movement:
A Poster Project
Goshen Lounge

9:00-10:00am

Language Documentation in Nepal:
Between the Macro- and the Micro-
MUC, Maple/Dogwood

9:00-10:30am

Emigration and Forced Migration:
Case Studies from the Muslim World
MUC, Oak/Redbud

9:30-10:00am

To Move is to Worship:
Al Wiltz and the Establishment of the Dance Program at SIUE, 1968-1983
MUC, Hickory/Hackberry

10:00-10:30am

West Coast Jews: The Relationship between Anti-Japanese and Anti-Semitic Movements
during the Immigration Restriction Era
MUC, Hickory/Hackberry

10:00-10:30am

Lost in Migration: Lack of Correlation Between Geomagnetic Anomalies and Cetacean Strandings in the Caribbean
MUC, Maple/Dogwood

11:00-11:30am

19th Century Illustrated Sheet Music
Collection Goes YouTube
MUC, Oak/Redbud

12:00-12:30pm

Close But Not Touching: The Eugenics and Birth Control Movements From 1900-1930
MUC, Hickory/Hackberry

12:00-1:00pm

Make a Move
MUC, Goshen Lounge

1:00-1:30pm

Movement in Motion
MUC, Goshen Lounge

1:00-3:00pm

Freedom of Movement
MUC, Oak/Redbud

2:00-2:30pm

What Does the Doc Say? Will We Ever Know?
Changing the Course of your Healthcare.
MUC, Hickory/Hackberry

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY
EDWARDSVILLE

COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCES