

College of Arts and Sciences
Colloquium – April 2 & 3
In the Morris University Center

Thinking About Movement

Thursday, April 3, 2014

Ongoing All Day Exhibit

Defining Movement:
Thinking About Movement:
A Poster Project
MUC, Goshen Lounge

9:30-10:00am

A House Without Roots: Andrée Chedid's
Legacy of Literary, Geographic and Generational Movement Between the Nile and the Seine
MUC, Maple/Dogwood

9:30-10:45am

Daoist, Buddhist and Early Chinese Literary Queries into the Nature of Qi and Motion
MUC, Oak/Redbud

11:00-11:30am

Phoning Home in the 21st Century:
The Latin American Diaspora Online
MUC, Oak/Redbud

11:00am-12:15pm

Movement in Native North America:
Things, Minds, Peoples and Bodies
MUC, Hickory/Hackberry

11:00am-12:15pm

Thinking About Movement in Public Relations Practice
MUC, Maple/Dogwood

12:30-1:30pm

On the Prowl: Alternative Career Moves for Humanities Majors
MUC, Oak/Redbud

12:30-1:45pm

Thinking About the Civil Rights Movement and African American Politics
MUC, Goshen Lounge

2:00-2:30pm

Bosnian Migration to St. Louis and their Imprint on the Cultural Landscape
MUC, Maple/Dogwood

2:00-2:30pm

Active Faunal Colonization of Cave:
The Role of Natural Selection
MUC, Hickory/Hackberry

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

James Carville

And

Alberto Gonzales

America's best-known political consultant on stage with a former U.S. Attorney General

7:30pm in the MUC, Meridian
Ballroom

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY
EDWARDSVILLE

COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCES