Make a Move

A devised theater piece that will focus on the theme of moving and movement, using resources from literature, real life events, their imagination, and experimentation students created a new theater experience that will engage every age group from childhood to adult. It will encompass all the joys and sorrows that are equated with all the ideas associated with moving: immigration, changing, relocating, leaving friends, flying, swinging, moving on, moving around, prodding, nudging, leading, following, shifting, traveling, dancing, shuffling, stepping, progressing, repositioning, pulling, pushing, redistributing, and MORE!
