

Segue is a 30 minute Public Affairs Program which features interviews and information regarding the latest developments within the SIUE College of Arts & Sciences.

The Program also showcases community leaders and presents perspective on SIUE's role in, and impact on, our region.