

Dear Colleagues,

Gwen Moore, Urban Curator of the Missouri History Museum, will be giving a presentation titled "Market Queens: Black Women's Entrepreneurship" this Monday, March 21 from 11:00 AM – 12:00 PM. It should be very interesting. Her presentation will take place at Lovejoy Library Friends Corner (1st Floor).

Hope to see you there.

Prince Wells

SIUE Black Studies & SIUE Women's Studies

Presents:

Gwen Moore

"Market Queens: Black Women's Entrepreneurship"

Date:

Monday, March 21, 2016

Time:

11:00am - 12:00pm

Location:

*Lovejoy Library Friends
Corner (1st Floor)*

Admission:

Free

Gwen Moore is the Urban Curator of the Missouri History Museum. She has been associated with the Missouri History Museum since 1998, working as a researcher, community programmer and oral historian. Her current area of research is concerned with social movements with a particular interest in civil rights activism.

For more information contact Prince Wells at (618) 650-5038 or email <pwells@siue.edu>

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY
EDWARDSVILLE
COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCES