

This October, Disability Support Services will celebrate Disability Awareness Month. This month will be full of opportunities to learn more about disability and access:

Hearing Impairment Experiential Centers

2-4 p.m.

Tuesday, Oct. 4

Student Success Center, room 1202 (across from Disability Support Services)

Hearing Impairment Experiential Centers

Noon-2 p.m.

Wednesday, Oct. 5

Student Success Center, room 1202 (across from Disability Support Services)

SIUE Alumna Theresa San Luis presents "Tuning Out Stigma: An Artist's Endeavor"

3 p.m.

Wednesday, Oct. 12

Morris University Center Mississippi Room (second floor)

San Luis' presentation will focus on mental health awareness, her personal story as a student and artist, a piano and viola performance of her original music, and a panel discussion led by staff from the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI) of Southwestern Illinois.

Comedian Samuel Comroe will perform his stand-up routine

7 p.m.

Wednesday, Oct. 19

Morris University Center, Conference Center (second floor)

Comroe's comedy is based on his everyday observations about relationships and life, tempered by his trials and tribulations with Tourette Syndrome.

National Disability Employment Awareness Month recognized through a display of educational posters

Tuesday, Oct. 25

Morris University Center second floor, near the Multicultural Center