

Lifelong Learning offers insights into Understanding the 2016 Election and then we Shake up Shakespeare to Unravel the Bard!

"Understanding the 2016 Election," presented by Dr. Laurie Rice, associate professor and coordinator of the Civic Education Project, Department of Political Science

10:30-11:45 a.m.

Wednesday, Nov. 16

Morris University Center, Illinois Room

"Shaking up Shakespeare: Unravelling the Bard," presented by Jeannie Dinning, Speech Center coordinator and department lead and lecturer of Career Development

1:15 – 2:30 p.m.

Wednesday, Nov. 16

Morris University Center, Illinois Room

The SIUE community of faculty, retired faculty, staff and students are always invited to attend for free. The cost is $5 for the public, unless otherwise stated.

For more information about these and other presentations, visit Lifelong Learning or contact Patty Bade at pbade@siue.edu or 650-3985.

We welcome your comments, questions, and participation in the program.