

Lifelong Learning offers an overview and insights about the Dental and Pharmacy mission trip to Jamaica in 2015, and then a look at the influence of the Spanish Colonial Empire in understanding 21st Century Argentina.

"Jamaica Dental Mission Trip of July 18–25, 2015", presented by Dr. Poonam Jain, BDS, MS, MPH, professor and director of the School of Dental Medicine's Community Preventative Dentistry Program.

10:30 -11:45 a.m.

Wednesday, Nov. 9

Morris University Center, Hickory Hackberry Room

"Argentina: A Product of the Spanish Colonial Empire," presented by Dr. David Ault, emeritus professor of economics and finance.

1:15–2:30 p.m.

Wednesday, Nov. 9

Morris University Center, Hickory Hackberry Room

The SIUE community always attend for FREE. The cost is $5 for the public, unless otherwise stated.

For a complete synopsis about these and other upcoming presentations, please see Lifelong Learning or contact Patty Bade at pbade@siue.edu or 650-3985.