

Look for SIUE Booth at The Land of Goshen Community Farmer's Market

The Land of Goshen Community Farmer's Market is held in downtown Edwardsville Saturday mornings through October 15. At the Market, businesses and farmers gather in tents—rain or shine—to sell their locally made products.

This year, the City of Edwardsville graciously offered the University booth space. Each week, a different department will host the SIUE tent to provide information on events, issues or offerings.

8 a.m.–Noon

Saturdays through Oct. 15

St. Louis Street (by the Madison County Courthouse)
Edwardsville

Upcoming Goshen Market events:

August 27 – Wagner Potters Association

September 3 – Friends of Theater and Dance

September 10 – Suicide Risk Awareness and Prevention (School of Pharmacy/School of Nursing)

September 17 – School of Engineering student design team projects

September 24 – School of Engineering robotics

October 1 – Poison prevention and drug take-back (School of Pharmacy)

October 8 – Lead poisoning prevention (School of Nursing)

October 15 – Disability Awareness Week (Disability Support Services)

We hope to see you there!