

Please join the School of Education, Health and Human Behavior in welcoming 12 visiting scholars from Northwest Normal University (NWNNU) and Sichuan University of Science and Engineering (SUSE) in China!

The scholars recently arrived and will live in Cougar Village during fall semester while they participate in the School's International Training Program in Pedagogy (ITPP). During the semester, the visiting scholars will observe classes in the College of Arts and Sciences, School of Business, School of Engineering, School of Pharmacy and School of Education, Health and Human Behavior. They will also make three presentations throughout the semester that will be open to the campus community.

Here are the scholars and their areas of expertise.

- Jie Du, professor of life sciences, NWNNU
- Jiong Guo, professor of ICT and education, NWNNU
- Kefang JIA, associate professor of philosophy and politics, NWNNU
- Jinyun Li, associate professor of education, NWNNU
- Meijiao Shan, associate professor of economics, NWNNU
- Aiqin Sun, associated professor of education, NWNNU
- Jing Wang, lecturer of Chinese pedagogy and second language acquisition, NWNNU
- Xiaomei Wang, lecturer of foreign languages and literature, NWNNU
- Yaohua Wang, lecturer of tourism, NWNNU
- Lianxia Li, lecturer of humanities, SUSE
- Xuefei Li is a lecturer of material and chemical engineering, SUSE
- Yiqiang Yang, lecturer of automation and electronic information, SUSE

Please feel free to contact the ITPP team members if you have any related questions:

Yuliang Liu, professor, educational leadership, yliu@siue.edu, 650-3293

Huaibo Xin, assistant professor, public health, hxin@siue.edu, 650-3226

Thomas M. Lavalley, chair and associate professor of Chinese, tlavale@siue.edu 650-3510

Paul Rose, chair and assistant dean, prose@siue.edu, 650-3728