Student Disposition Inventory

Dispositions characteristic of the Inquirer-Professional:

- The candidate values theory and research.
- The candidate believes all children can learn through the application of appropriate instructional processes.
- The candidate takes a critical perspective of the context of schools.
- The candidate respects the diversity of all learners, colleagues, parents and members of the wider community.
- The candidate values appropriate interpersonal relationships.
- The candidate has a sense of professional responsibility and values life-long learning.

All teacher education candidates at SIUE are required to complete a self-assessment on the above dispositions using the Student Disposition Self-Inventory. These dispositions are tied to SIUE's conceptual framework and each student's development as an Inquirer-Professional. You will also be assessed by faculty at various times in your programs on these same dispositions.

Please access the Self-Inventory at:

Please enter the following information:

Your name

Banner ID# (800 number)

Answer all questions honestly (there are no right or wrong answers!)

At the end of the form is a SUBMIT SURVEY button. You will only be allowed to submit the survey if you have answered all of the questions.

Once you submit your survey, a printable form will appear. PRINT THIS FORM, sign it and submit it to your CI-200 or SPE-200 instructor for credit. (NOTE: You may want to adjust your print options so the page fits on one sheet.)

If you have any problems accessing or submitting the survey, please contact Mr. Binod Pokhrel at 650-3778 or bpokhre@siue.edu.
