Brief Description of Research:

Restrictions for participation (if any):

Please see the attached sign-up sheets (behind this cover sheet) for appointment times and dates.

To make an appointment, find a sheet for a day you wish to participate in the study. Write your name, phone #, and class/section/instructor next to one of the appointment times provided by the experimenter.

Please carefully record the time, date, location, and experiment number for your appointment. Also write down the name and contact information of the experimenter in case you need to cancel prior the appointment.

It is your responsibility to be at the correct place at the correct time so that you do not incur a penalty.
