Verification Inquiry: Member of Household 2011-2012

VIMHH

Name _____ Univ. ID# _____

Your 2011-2012 federal financial aid application has been selected for verification, a process required by federal legislation. Requested information must be submitted, as this information will be used to finalize your eligibility for federal financial aid. Aid cannot be offered until the verification process has been completed. A prompt response to requested additional information, along with required signatures on this form, will reduce the processing time of the federally required verification.

You have listed someone as a member of your/your parents' household who may not meet the federal criteria to be included in household size. Please complete the form, sign the Certification Statement and return the form for review.

Attach a second sheet of paper if you need to provide any additional information you feel will document that the person we have asked about meets the criteria to be included in your/your parents' household size. For example, if the person has their own income, you might explain how you have determined that you/your parents contribute more than one-half of that person's support. However, if you do not believe this person meets the criteria to be included in the household size please check box below.

Please delete this person from my/my parents' household size; I do not believe they meet the criteria to be included in the household size.
