Additional Financial Information

Your 2010-2011 federal financial aid application has been selected for verification, a process required by federal legislation. Requested information must be submitted, as this information will be used to finalize your eligibility for federal financial aid. Aid cannot be offered until the verification process has been completed. A prompt response to requested additional information, along with required signatures on this form, will reduce the processing time of the federally required verification.

You/your spouse or your parent's (if dependent student) have reported an income exclusion that we cannot verify from the information submitted. If you reported an income exclusion due to child support paid for a child or children not included in your household size, review the below definition of child support paid, then supply the information requested in the box below. If the amount reported was in error, check the box above the Certification Statement confirming that the amount reported was in error.
