

This Freshman Seminar class is centered around SIUE as a community. We will tour different buildings on campus and write an assortment of writing assignments centered around those tours. Additionally, we will write longer argumentative essays with the idea of community in mind, from the community of our families to the global community.