

Southern Illinois University Edwardsville Announces International Scholarship for Undergraduate Students

Through a competitive process, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville will award up to 30 new undergraduate international students a special reduced tuition rate to recognize their outstanding academic achievement. Pending formal approval by the SIU Board of Trustees, this special rate will be awarded for fall 2011. The award will be good for up to 8 undergraduate semesters.

Award Value The special tuition rate will reduce annual tuition for selected undergraduate international students from $21,000 to approximately $11,000. Over four years, the award will have a value of approximately $40,000 when compared with traditional undergraduate international student tuition rates.

Qualifications Awardees will be selected, through a competitive process, based on overall high school grade point average, TOEFL or IELTS scores, and/or outstanding talent.

Applying for the Award There is no separate application required to be considered for this scholarship. Interested students should complete an international undergraduate application. Required items for an undergraduate application are:

- English language verification (official TOEFL or IELTS scores)
- Official academic transcripts/records
- Copy of Biographical Page from Passport

Priority consideration deadline: April 15 (awards will continue to be made after this date as resources remain available.)

Notification of awards begins: April 30 (will continue until all awards are accepted and verified)
