is pleased to offer

Historical Studies in ITALY

Dates: May 9 - 31, 2012

Faculty Leader: Dr. Carole Collier Frick
Professor of Historical Studies

Earn 3 – 6 SIUE credit hours while experiencing the brilliance of Italy. The faculty-led travel study program offers first-hand experience and the study of history and culture in this country, where some have argued the birth of modern consciousness took place during the Renaissance. The three-week program will introduce you to the artwork, architecture, and history of Italy, through classroom lectures and on-site walking tours, museum visits, and excursions to places of historic interest. All undergraduate program participants will enroll in HIST 300 (Italian History and Culture). Students may elect to also take HIST 410 (Independent Study) to earn an additional 3 credit hours.

Your study abroad experience will include:

Lectures by Dr. Frick in Italian culture and history at the Santa Reparata International School of Art (SRISA) campus in the historic center of Florence.

Daily outings around the city to see the art and architecture, including trips to the Uffizi, Michelangelo's David, Brunelleschi's Dome, the Palazzo Medici, Santa Croce, the Museum of Science, the Palazzo Pitti and Boboli Gardens and more.

Excursions to Siena, San Gimignano, Pisa, and the breath-taking Cinque Terre on the Italian Riviera

PROGRAM FEE: $4,040

Includes round-trip airfare from St. Louis to Florence, 3 weeks student apartment in Florence, museum card, and excursions to Siena, San Gimignano, Pisa and Cinque Terre.

Additional Costs to Consider: 3 – 6 hours SIUE tuition billed on summer 2012 bursar bill, optional excursion Rome ($350), meals & incidental expenses.

Program Fee Payment due dates:

1st Payment: $1,250 will be due with the application or by December 16, 2011

2nd Payment: $1,250 will be due Feb. 10, 2012

3rd Payment: $1,540 due March 16, 2012.

“Nothing can replace the experience of witnessing, in the flesh, the magnitude that is the Duomo, Battistero, and Campanile, of Florence. It stopped me in my tracks, every time I passed it for the three weeks while I was Italy. I cherish the pictures I returned with, but they only serve as a reminder of the humbling feeling that being in the presence of such grand architecture and art can evoke.”

- Bernadette Marty, 2010 Florence Travel Study Participant.
