(Minimum is 6 hours per week; typical is 9.)

Will it be possible for your student(s) to earn course credit? Yes No

If yes, in which course? PSYC 491

If yes, for how many credit hours? 3

Location of research/creative activities: Alumni Hall

Brief description of the nature of the research/creative activity:

Students will assist with data collection for a series of studies on stigma, community health interventions, and stereotyping.

Brief description of student responsibilities:

Students will be responsible for assisting with preparing experimental materials, conducting research sessions, data entry and analysis, and possible co-authorship on research publications.

URCA Assistant positions are designed to provide students with research or creative activities experience. As such, there should be measurable, appropriate outcome goals. What exactly should your student(s) have learned by the end of this experience?

At the end of the semester, students should be proficient in all stages of data collection and assigning research credit, entering and analyzing data in SPSS, and preparing results for dissemination at either a conference or a publication.

Requirements of Students

If the position(s) require students to be available at certain times each week (as opposed to them being able to set their own hours), please indicate all required days and times:

Meeting times are scheduled for students' convenience.

If the location of the research/creative activities involves off campus work, must students provide their own transportation?

N/A

Must students have taken any prerequisite classes? Please list classes and preferred grades:

Students ideally will have successfully taken both PSYC 220 and PSYC 221.

Other requirements or notes to applicants:

This position would be ideal for students interested in social psychological research and/or social justice issues.
