Instructor Evaluation

Please provide responses to each of the following questions.

13. Please comment on at least one thing the instructor did that you believe enhanced your learning.
   - Dr. Reed's lectures have great pace & he explains concepts clearly.
   - Prof. Reed always provided examples that would correlate with the lessons taught.
   - Well-organized presentations.
   - Real world examples of material taught.
   - The notes written on the board were great! (Detailed & organized). Quizzes also helped to enforce learning of material.
   - Professor Reed would always show good examples in every topic he discussed to help us understand everything better.
   - Used hand written notes.
   - In class quizzes.
   - Wrote on the board, not PowerPoints. Gave useful examples to apply the concepts to. Gave great advice about our upcoming careers.
   - Quizzes.
   - Provided in-class quizzes and also talked about homework problems he thought were important.
   - Going through the material at a pace that wasn't rushed helped with learning the material.
   - The way he presented notes on the chalkboard was very helpful. It helped me stay engaged with the information.
   - He explained everything clearly and provided good examples.
   - Letting us work together on quizzes helped me learn the material better.
   - Provided practice tests from previous classes.
   - Dr. Reed always explains everything very thoroughly.
   - I liked how he had handwritten notes instead of the usual powerpoints.
