Music for Piano and Orchestra:
The Recorded Repertory
Compiled by Dr. Allan B. Ho
Professor emeritus, musicology
Southern Illinois University Edwardsville
(updated 3/29/2019)

For the most up-to-date edition, see http://www.siue.edu/~aho/discography/Discography.pdf
Mirror sites have earlier versions with errors and omissions.

This discography includes titles of works for piano and orchestra recorded for commercial and non-commercial release (including synthesized or chamber renditions when no other version is known). Additional information (labels and numbers, source, performers’ names) is available upon request. The proliferation of amateur and student compositions on youtube, soundcloud, etc. has made it impractical to document every work for piano and orchestra that has been recorded. Beginning in March 2013, works that have been recorded only in synthesized performances have not been added if
(1) the composer is anonymous; or
(2) the work has limited musical merit or is extremely brief.

Note: underlined works have synthesized solo and/or orchestra parts and are mainly by student or amateur composers.
Sigla (§, +, ) preceding works are for the compiler’s use,
to access information on the format and location of recordings.
• = private archival recording.

This discography will be updated regularly (see the date at the top).
I would appreciate hearing from anyone who has a recording of works without any sigla or is aware of additions or corrections that need to be made.
Composers and performers, please submit an mp3/m4a of works absent from this discography to aho@siue.edu

Sincere thanks to everyone who has contributed to this discography, especially (in alphabetical order) Jay Beatty, Corentin Boissier, Tobias Bröker, Maurizio Brunetti, Berkant Haydin, Peter Heinze, Ruud Janssen, David Kloepper, Markus Lång, Ernst Lumpe, Karl Miller, Marek Niewiadomski, Miklos Pogonyi, Ron Retherford, Onno van Rijen, Holger Sambale, Atsushi Sato, Jim Semadeni, Ed Wheeler, and the graduate students in my MUS 501 class.

Totentanz, S. 126 (final version, 1881. According to Kenneth Hamilton, Liszt “supplied Siloti with some significant revisions to the work, which he had devised after hearing earlier performances given by his pupils Julius Zarembski and Martha Remmert. These revisions remained unpublished during Liszt’s lifetime, and eventually appeared in print, edited by Siloti, in 1911, the centenary of the Liszt’s birth. This edition was largely ignored in the succeeding century, under the erroneous belief that the revisions were Siloti’s own”)
