Wells that music the business of jazz and business

Aldemaro Romero
College Talk

“It is a music theory and it is an approach to coming or improving that was very instrumental, particu-larly with musicians like John Coltrane and Miles Davis,” said Wells. “The whole col legiate move-m ent was based on the approach where George Russell really influenced the thinking of musicians who brought it together into some-what systematically grounded in a form of vertical playing enriching each passing chord. What Miles and others had to begin focus on was more on an enlarged lyrical mood to dealing with modes or modal music and reflecting each passing chord.”

For the intelligencer

Crowd bids Vanguard farewell

More than 700 current and retired faculty and students turned out Friday to give Southern Illinois University Edwardsville Chancellor Vuong D. D. Nguyen and his wife, Sue, a warm farewell and to applaud their leadership as the pair concluded their tenure at the helm.

People gathered in the University’s Student Union Quad, enjoyed lunch and conversation in the sun-try atmosphere. The event featured speeches from present employees with 15 or more years of service. Following the speeches, a crowd formed in front of the Student Union, enjoying the breezy summer weather, making contact and saying goodbye.

When speaking about Nguyen, his wife, Sue, and their family, former SIE staff members all re-wrote their farewells. “Thank you for your leadership,” Sue Shaw, provost of the new campus, said.

As an employee for nine years, Hamil said he applied to one day see the

For the intelligencer

Heat

Continued from Page 1

The last summer went as the fourth hottest on record in the St. Louis area with average daily temperatures in June, July and August of 82.7 degrees.

Four Madison County residents – F.G. the greater St. Louis area – died as the result of last summer’s intense heat.

These records, last year found the YMCA on Eric Drive and the YMCA-Meyer Center from 6 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Edwardsville High School, Liberty Middle School and Gordon Elementary School are also seeking as cooling centers from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.

The Gannett Senior Center is also an option as the air will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

As does her every time when the temperatures near 40 degrees, The American Red Cross has issued a heat safety reminder. They are:

Move to lower level refunds and stay away from areas of intense temperature.

Know how to detect, cool down, cool down and watch the weather.

Be aware that people facing, or at least at risk from the effects of a prolonged heat wave are those living in rural areas.

Ensure that your air-conditioning needs to be made so that you Stay hydrated by drinking plenty of fluids even if you do not feel thirsty.

Sleep with the window open.

Get something to eat.

Cool down by eating healthy, light meals.

Drink cool, cool drinks.

Signs of heat exhaustion include cool, moist, or flushed skin; heavy

Sweating; headache; nausea; dizziness; weakness; and exhaustion.

Move to the cooler in a cooler place.

If you or someone you know is feeling unwell, come to a local Emergency department.

Signs for heat stroke (also known as sunstroke) include hot, red skin which is dry or moist; changes in consciousness; vomiting; and high body temperature.

Keep the person’s body by giving care as you would for heat exhaustion.

If needed, continue rapid cooling by applying ice or cold packs wrapped in a cloth to the wrists, ankles, knees, and elbows.

Heat stroke is life-threatening. Call 9-1-1 or the local emergency number immediately.

Collins

Continued from Page 1

Collins had served with the Edwardsville Police Department for 15 years and holds the position of senior patrol officer. He is 43 and has been with the police force for 15 years.

On April 3, charged with making unauthorized video recordings of three women on August 1, 3 and 4. He is being represented in the criminal case by Edwardsville and Pontiac

In an unrelated case, 25-year-old Brandon H. Mahnenk of Granite City is facing charges that on April 3 he made video recordings of a woman in the bathroom next to his apartment in Granite City.