SIUE's College of Arts and Sciences, in conjunction with Arts and Issues and the Greater St. Louis Humanities Festival, proudly present:

Thinking about Community

Thursday, October 1, 2015

Maple-Dogwood Room, Morris University Center

Larry LaFond   10:00-10:30am
   Rediscovering Academic Community

Lora Smallman, Sarah Park, Steve Kerber   11:00-12:15pm
   Community and Immigration in the 19th-Century
   Madison County, Illinois: Digitization of Naturalization Records and Creation of a Data Set

J. Debbie Mann and Chance Goodwin   12:30-1:00pm
   Uniquely Quebec: Linguistic and Cultural Coexistence in the Novels of Louise Penny

Jessica DeSpain, Sharon Locke, Georgia Bracey, Matthew Johnson,   2:00-3:15pm
Liza Cummings, and Howard Rambsy
   The Digital East St. Louis Project: An Interdisciplinary Outreach Project Focuses on the Digital Humanities and Place-Based Education

Cory Willmott, Julie Holt, Suzanne Kutterer-Siburt,   3:30-4:45pm
 Ardina Moore (Quapaw Tribe of Oklahoma)
   The Mounds-America's First Cities Project

Aqui y Alla [Here and There] Special Film Screening   5:00-7:00pm
(Introduced by Mariana Solares)

Keynote Address on Communities:
Amy Hunter
Director, Racial Justice, YWCA Metropolitan St. Louis
7:30-8:30pm

Concurrent Sessions:

Hickory-Hackberry Room, Morris University Center

Shelly Goebl-Parker, Kathryn Bentley, Judy McGrath, Roseann Weiss   12:15-1:30pm
      "With Not For" – A Community Art Exhibition

Kathryn Bentley, Kenneth Coleman, Quincy Gordon, & Avalon Palmer   2:00-2:45pm
      Black Theatre Workshop Touring Ensemble – Performance
      "A Beautiful Day in the Neighborhood"

Jeff Skoblow   3:30-4:30pm
      Poetry and Community

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY
EDWARDSVILLE

THE GREATER ST LOUIS
HUMANITIES
*f*ESTIVAL