Join the Illinois Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity (DCEO) - Office of Trade & Investment (OTI) on a Trade Mission to China that will include matchmaking opportunities in Shanghai followed by participation in the ChinaBio Partnering Forum in Suzhou.

ChinaBio Partnering Forum is the premier life science partnering event in China. The event will attract biotech and pharma leaders from around the world along with hundreds of China-based developers of novel technologies for two days of productive partnering. ChinaBio Partnering Forum 2011 had more than 650 delegates from 370 companies and 24 countries, making it the largest partnering conference in China. The 2012 edition promises to be even better with the return of the successful Innovation Showcase featuring top researchers from leading institutes and universities throughout China. The conference also features partner-ingONE, enabling delegates to efficiently identify, meet and network with companies from across the life science value chain.

This program provides you the opportunity to meet with senior management and business development executives from global biotech and pharma companies, China biotech executives and entrepreneurs, CROs/CMOs, and venture capitalists, and researchers from leading institutes universities in China.

With over one-third of the attendees being C-level decision makers, ChinaBio® Partnering Forum is the event to get partnerships started in China.
