Welcome

Hi everyone! I am excited to be working with you this semester as we explore the concepts and theories related to the study of groups and how these entities can impact individual behavior within psychology. This is quite an important topic as we live, work, and play in both formal and informal groups with others. I think that the college classroom is the best space to examine this topic safely and respectfully and how it relates to our everyday lived experiences.

Bio

Dr. Rachel Bradley is an Assistant Professor of Psychology at Southern Illinois University Edwardsville. After completing her PhD in social psychology at Saint Louis University in 2014, Dr. Bradley taught psychology for six years at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock. Dr. Bradley's research interests include exploring racial/ethnic and sexual identity and identification and examining colorism (a.k.a. skin tone bias), stereotyping, stigma, and prejudice. In addition to these interests, Dr. Bradley also studies topics related to the scholarship of teaching and learning. Dr. Bradley's teaching interests include research methods, social psychology, psychology of gender, multicultural psychology, and group dynamics. Dr. Bradley enjoys spending time with her husband and dogs, Wally and ThudButt.

Teaching Philosophy

I have spent considerable time developing and honing my skills as an educator. My philosophy of teaching is to cultivate curriculum that spur original thought to produce well-rounded students equipped to examine critically their social world. I come to each class with a thoughtful perspective and the goal to do my best to provide the students who come into my classroom with knowledge and thought-provoking experiences. I want everyone who comes into my classroom to leave changed for the better.

- If you have an issue with your grade on an assignment, you must notify me by email to set up an appointment to discuss the grade within a week after your grade is posted on Blackboard. I will not consider grade disputes raised after this time.
- This course will have three-unit essays as the primary form of assessing knowledge acquisition. These essays will be directed with specific prompts. Two of the three essays will be included in the final grade. Each essay will be due online on Blackboard on the date scheduled. It is your responsibility to make sure that your essay is completed and turned in on time. Late essays will not be accepted for any reason or circumstance.

Grading rubrics

Grading rubrics will be provided on Blackboard for assignments that utilize one for grading purposes.

Feedback and grading timeline

Weekly Journals and Top 5 grades with rubric feedback will be posted within one week of the due date. Other assignments may take longer to grade. You can find your grade by clicking the My Grades link on the left menu of the Blackboard course. If there is a rubric attached to the assignment, you can click your score to see feedback on the rubric, if any.

Late or Missed Assignments/Rewrites

- Late assignments will be penalized 10% for each day past the due date. After 2 days (this includes all days within the week Monday - Sunday), the assignment will not be accepted for credit.
- All assignments, except essay assessments, are subject to the late assignment policy.
- Make-up essay assessments will not be given for any reason.
- Rewrites will not be permitted for this course.

Participation

It is vitally important that our classroom environment promotes the respectful exchange of ideas, including being sensitive to the views and beliefs expressed during class discussions. Your success in this course will depend on your communication, consistent engagement, and active participation in all course activities. Success in this course requires that you adhere to the deadlines given below as you complete assignments, discussions, and other course activities. This is not included in your final grade.

Attendance/Excused Absence Policy

Attendance will be taken every class meeting. Each student will begin the semester with 100 points for attendance. Deductions will occur for unexcused absences. Holidays and scheduled class cancellations will not be included in the count of missing days. Missing 10%= 90pts, 20%= 80pts, 30%= 70pts, 40%= 60pts, 50%= 50pts, >50%= 0pts.

- Students are STRONGLY encouraged to attend all class meetings. There will be in-class activities and assignments for which you may receive points. If you are not present the day of these activities/assignments, you will not receive points and you cannot make these up. If you miss class, it is your responsibility to obtain notes and/or handouts from your classmates.

- An “Excused” absence will be recorded for any student who notifies the instructor (by phone or email) prior to the class meeting time that they will not be able to attend class. A note may be required if absences become frequent or upon the instructor’s request. Also, students who arrive at class meetings 15 minutes late or more will be counted as an unexcused absence.

Course Questions

It is natural for everyone to have questions and I want you to feel comfortable asking questions. That said, in some cases, students ask questions that could be easily answered by looking in the syllabus or course materials. In order to facilitate personal responsibility I ask that you follow the “rule of 3 then me” before asking a question. If your question is about the course requirements or some aspect of the course check in 3 places for the answer before you ask me. When you ask me, tell me where you have looked for the answer and explain your question. This helps me understand the question so I can give you a better answer.
