INTERNSHIP

Syllabus

DEPARTMENT OF CONSTRUCTION

Revised August 2019

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this manual is to provide the student and the employer with information regarding the internship experience. Goals, procedures, forms, and criteria are provided for the mutual benefit of students, employer, supervisors, and the Department of Construction Internship Coordinator.

The internship provides students with an excellent opportunity to transition from classrooms and laboratories to positions of responsibility and challenge. For employers, the internship program offers the chance to work with persons who have recently been involved in an educational experience and are therefore eager to learn how to apply their newly acquired knowledge. And for the university staff, it offers the chance to make connections with business and industry, thereby offering the strong potential for program development and enhancement.

The internship option is for credit - 3 semester credit hours obtained through enrolling in SURV 470. For credit internships are only available to students with upper classmen status.

Co-op – The co-op allows the student to work multiple work terms with an employer. Co-op courses are open without credit or tuition cost to all construction majors regardless of class standing. Co-op courses are recorded on the student's academic transcript. The co-op program is administered by the Career Development Center (CDC), through enrollment in CNST 199, CNST 299, or CNST 399. For information on co-op programs contact the CDC at (618) 650-3708.

INTERNSHIP STUDENT REQUIREMENTS

The Construction Management Internship Program is composed of internship work experiences performing approved construction management activities.

- 1.) Meet the above listed requirements for internship.
- 2.) Secure and read the Internship Manual from the Internship Coordinator or online at (<https://www.siu.edu/engineering/construction/pdf/CNST470-InternshipHandbook-2019.pdf>). The Internship Coordinator is currently Chenxi Yuan, EB 2063, 618-650-5019, cyuan@siu.edu.
- 3.) Submit a current resume and a copy of the OSHA 10-hour certificate or card to the Internship Coordinator or be signed up to take the OSHA course during the first semester of internship.
- 4.) Meet with the Internship Coordinator individually or attend an orientation meeting to discuss requirements and the procedure for securing a placement.
- 5.) Resume writing, interview coaching, and other services are offered at CDC (<http://www.siu.edu/careerdevelopmentcenter/>).
- 6.) Enroll in SURV 470 for the term in which you will finish the internship. Students who do not complete the minimum 300 hours during one semester will receive a grade of – I (incomplete) until all course requirements are met. Instructions to student: The Training Plan is essentially your syllabus for the internship. It is a description of the learning objectives and associated duties you will be performing during your internship. Management-oriented does NOT mean you must supervise people. Estimating, planning, designing, and project coordination are good management-oriented activities for Internship students.

WORK LOG GUIDELINES

The work logs are a very important aspect of your internship experience and should be written with thoroughness and much thought. The work logs are used by the Internship Coordinator to monitor your progress and evaluate your writing skills. Also remember that your work logs will be a major portion of your final report, which you may use as a portfolio of your internship experience.

Work logs should be typed and should be sent to the Internship Coordinator at the quartile points of your internship. The content of the logs should include two items for each day.

1.) Activity Description

The activity description is the major portion of the work log and is a description of the major activities/tasks performed during each day. This section may outline a new task that was initiated, or it may update/summarize the progress made on a continuing task.

2.) Reaction/Thoughts:

During the completion of each task, you are encouraged to document your thoughts pertaining to the task. For example, does the task support one particular class you had in school, or does the task highlight an area that you may feel you could use additional studies? Why is the task important to the company and how was it initiated? Who is the customer for your work and how will they use the results of your work?

The internship experience is more than a temporary job and you should be thinking about the work experience and using the knowledge gained to formulate a plan for your professional future.

The work log should also document the hours worked each day and the cumulative total hours worked in the internship.

A sample work log follows. The format for this log should be followed as closely as possible.

Work Log for John J. Smith – Hammer Hard Construction Company

Week: 17 April 2012 – 21 April 2012

 Monday, 17 April 2012 – 8 hours

Activity: Worked on layout of new conveyor system for the 300 ton Cincinnati. I had to coordinate with Maintenance and Tooling in order to determine how much clearance needed to be factored in between the machine take-up reel and the conveyor system. The Tooling engineer thought Safety should be consulted on this issue in addition to Maintenance and Tooling. I contacted Safety and scheduled a meeting for Tuesday morning at 8AM (Maintenance and Tooling with also be there).

Thoughts: Involving Safety is probably the best way to go with this task. We don't want to install the conveyor only to find a pinch point problem down the road. I will need to put together an agenda for the meeting to make sure that all the issues are covered while Maintenance, Tooling and Safety are all there.

Supports Training Plan Objective: A

Tuesday, 18 April 2012 – 4 hours

Activity: Met with Maintenance, Tooling, and Safety to discuss clearance requirements for the conveyor system. The meeting lasted 30 minutes, and I have several action items as a result of the meeting: 1. Check with the vendor to see what the standard height of the unit will be. 2. Draw up the area on CAD to check for maximum allowable clearance. I scheduled another meeting for Monday of next week to discuss my finding with Maintenance, Tooling, and Safety

Thoughts: I probably should have checked with the vendor before scheduling the meeting today. I did not think that this much information would be needed to make the decision.

APPENDIX A.6 – Job Hazard Analysis

Inquire if your firm uses a standard Activity Hazard Analysis (AHA) form. Your firm may refer to this document as a ‘Task Hazard Analysis’ (THA) or ‘Job Hazard Analysis (JHA). If your firm has a standard format obtain a blank template.

If your firm does not use a standard AHA form, obtain a blank template from a safety textbook, web-page, or as a last resort from the Internship Coordinator.

Make sure that the standard form that you use has at least the following components:

- Project name
- Task or Activity description
- Author’s name
- Date
- Step by step activity description
- Risks associated with each step
- Measures proposed to mitigate risks
- Signature spaces for personnel involved with activity

Use the selected standard form and complete an AHA for an activity or task that you are familiar with at your firm. Review your completed analysis with your supervisor. Revise your form per your supervisor’s comments. Submit the completed AHA to the Internship Coordinator prior to completing 300 hours of documented work.

Your submittal will not be deemed acceptable unless it provides all of the components listed above AND includes initials of your supervisor showing that it has been reviewed. Unacceptable safety submittals will be returned for rework until satisfactorily completed. Credit for your internship will not be granted until and unless an acceptable safety submittal has been received.

Preparing the Summary Report

A summary report is required to complete the Internship. It is a written presentation of your accomplishments during the work period. Objectives of the Work Summary Report Paper are:

- (1) Provide a brief description of the employing firm
- (2) Educate the reader concerning the type of work completed and the skills used during the internship.
- (3) Provide a forum for discussing the strengths and weaknesses of the professional preparation provided by the SIUE Construction Management program.

To help you prepare your report, you will want to consider the following items and how they can be related your experience.

The Internship Coordinator will consider the professional characteristics of the report. The report will be typed, double spaced, with attention to how well your ideas are expressed and, of course, correct spelling and appearance always counts. The report should contain internal headings as you progress from one subject to another. Your report should look professional. The summary report is an analysis of your internship experience and should include all of the following elements:

As an introduction, you should give a background of the business, the size of the facility, number of employees, and the nature and scope of the business activity.

The summary report should include a synopsis of your job duties. What part of the experience was particularly interesting? Were some aspects exceptionally dull? You might want to relate to any special training, meetings, or demonstrations that you were able to attend.

For the conclusion of the report respond to questions relating to the value of the experience to you, and how well the internship will fit into your career goals. How well did your course work and university experience prepare you for the internship? As a result of your internship experience you will likely have recommendations for improving the construction program class room experience. Use the conclusion to make suggestions that would improve the SIUE Construction Program.

IT IS NOT REQUIRED; however, you may wish to include work samples or job photos (check with your employer first).
