Student's Name _____ Univ. ID # _____

Your 2019-2020 federal financial aid application has been selected for verification, a process required by federal regulation. Requested information must be submitted as soon as possible. Financial aid cannot be offered until the verification process has been completed.

You reported on the FAFSA that you are independent by having a dependent (other than children or a spouse) who lives with you and who receives more than half of their support from you, now and through June 30, 2020. Please complete the form to verify this information. Please provide legal documentation, if applicable.

Note: Submitting this form and documentation does not make one independent. Documentation will be reviewed for a decision.

Submit the following documents AND sign the bottom of this form. We reserve the right to ask for additional documentation verifying support. These are suggested items that may help us make a determination.

- Legal court documents
- A copy of health insurance card/dental card in your name for the dependent(s)

AND

- Documentation of housing (copy of lease agreement or utility bill in your name) showing dependent(s) in the household
- Occupancy permit including dependent(s)
- Day care provider information and documentation of payments made by you for the dependent(s)
- Documentation of TANF/WIC/SNAP or other federally subsidized programs in your name for the dependent(s)
- Documentation of child support received

Note: If you cannot verify that you provide 51% of the support for the dependent(s), and/or the dependent(s) does not live with you, and/or is not claimed on your taxes, mark the box below and sign the form and submit to our office. You are not independent and must file using parental information. You will need to go online to make the correction at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Make sure your parent signs the FAFSA. Submit the Institutional Verification Form (IVF), a copy of your parents' 2017 IRS Federal Tax Return Transcript, and 2017 W-2 Forms to our office.

- I do not support the dependent(s) more than 51% and cannot provide documentation of support.

I certify that ALL of the information on this form is true and complete.
