Guide to Questions Related to Protected Class Status Information

Area of Inquiry	Acceptable	Not Acceptable
Name	Whether the applicant has worked	Inquiries about the name that would elicit
	under another name	information about the candidate's ancestry, decent, and/or marriage
Age	Whether or not the candidate meets	Inquires which ask the age or date of birth of the the minimum legal working age as	candidate, e.g., "How old are you?" / "What is required by law, e.g., "Are you at least	your date of birth?"
	18 years old?"
Conviction	Avoid all questions in this area unless	Inquiry related to arrests, e.g., "Have you ever
and/or Arrest	you have consulted with Human	been arrested?"
Record	Resources
Disability/Health	If the candidate can complete the	Asking the candidate if they have a disability essential functions of the position: "Are	and/or general questions about their health,
	you capable of performing the essential	such as:
	functions of this position in a safe manner?"	Have you ever received worker's compensation?
	/	2. Do you have any prior work injuries?
	(This question should only be asked	3. Are you taking any prescription drugs?
	after the interviewer has thoroughly	4. When was the last time you were in the described the position and only if the question is asked of all the candidates.)	hospital? 5. How many sick days did you take last question is asked of all the callulates.)	year?
Marital	Whether or not the applicant can meet	To ask about marital status, number and age of Status/Family	specific work schedules. "This job	children, child care arrangements, and/or, the Status/T allilly	requires overtime occasionally; would	candidate's plans to have more children.
	you be able and willing to work	culturate s plans to have more children.
	overtime as necessary?"
Military Service	To ask about services performed as a	To ask a candidate about his/her discharge or to
,	member of the U.S. military, education,	ask about services performed in the military of a training, and any job related duties and	country other than the U.S.
	responsibilities
Race/National	You may ask if the candidate is legally	To inquire directly or indirectly about the
Origin	employable within the U.S.	candidate's race and/or national origin:
		1. Are you a U.S. citizen?
		<ol><li>What is your national origin?</li></ol>
		3. Where are your parents from?
		4. Tell me about the clubs (nonprofessional organizations) that you are a member of?
Religion	None	To ask a candidate about their religious denomination or religious affiliations (church, Sex	None	parish, pastor, or religious holidays observed)  Employment cannot be restricted just because a
Sex	None	job has been traditionally labelled "men's work" or "women's work". Sex cannot be used as a factor for determining a candidate's suitability
		for a particular job.
Sexual	None	Any question which would elicit the candidate's
Orientation		sexual orientation would be unacceptable.
Chemation	l	Jenadi orientation would be unacceptable.