SNAP is a support program within the School of Nursing that assists culturally diverse students in obtaining their goal of becoming a professional nurse. The support services include:

- Pre-admission counseling
- Help with admission and registration
- Faculty mentor program
- Special courses for personal motivation, educational support, and academic success
- Expand tutorial service in most academic areas
- Role model activities
- Peer networking
- Community service opportunities

Checklist for your road to success

☐ Apply to Southern Illinois University of Edwardsville
☐ Apply to the School of Nursing’s Student Nurse Achievement Program (SNAP)
☐ Acceptance to the University and School of Nursing’s Student Nurse Achievement Program
☐ Commitment, Perseverance, and Determination for academic and personal progress to successfully complete entrance and standardized test.
☐ Progress successfully to graduation and passage of NCLEX-RN
☐ Enter the profession of Nursing as RN, BS in Nursing

SNAP in ACTION!

Frequently Asked Questions:

Q: What is the Student Nurse Achievement Program?
A: It is a program that provides each student with an opportunity to enter a professional career in nursing with a baccalaureate degree. While in this program, Students will receive guidance in their academic pursuits with faculty and staff support to achieve their personal and professional goals.

Q: Who is eligible?
A: High school graduates as well as collegiate pre nursing students interested in a professional career in nursing.

Q: Will SNAP assist with financial information?
A: Yes, The SNAP advisor will review available financial resources with each student and assist with completion of application forms.

---

Contact Information:

Jerrica Ampadu, Coordinator of Diversity and SNAP

Dr. Laura Bernaix, Dean of the School of Nursing
Dr. Roberta Harrison, Associate Dean for Academic Programs
Dr. Ann Popkess, Assistant Dean for Undergraduate Programs

Email: jerphil@siue.edu

---

Name:

Phone:

Email: