

KIN517 Pathophysiology and Treatment of Obesity
Winter Term
Online
Instructor: Bryan Smith, PhD, CSCS
Office Location: VC2609
Office Hours: By Appointment
bryasmi@siue.edu

Course Description: This course is a review of the scientific literature related to the development and treatment of obesity. The development and treatment of atherosclerosis and diabetes, two diseases highly correlated with the obesity will also be covered in this class. Various prevention and treatment options for these conditions will be discussed but the role of exercise will be the primary focus.

Required Textbooks: There are no required textbooks for this class. All reading materials will be posted on BlackBoard.

Required Materials: You must have a webcam in order to complete this class. This class requires you to create multiple videos and all quizzes will require the Respondus Monitor.

Intellectual Property: This syllabus, and all course-related materials, are the intellectual property of Dr. Smith and/or SIUE. Students who give or sell this syllabus or course-related materials, without the written permission of Dr. Smith to any outside agency or person who is not currently enrolled in this class or at SIUE, will be in violation of the University's code of conduct and may be subject to disciplinary action, including but not limited to, immediate removal from the class.

Course Objectives: Following the completion of KIN517, the student is expected to be able to demonstrate the knowledge, skills and abilities required to do the following.

1. Understand the concept of energy balance and its role in the development and treatment of obesity.
2. Gain an understanding of the current obesity epidemic and understand how it developed.
3. Develop an understanding of dietary and medical treatment options for obesity
4. Develop an understanding for the role of exercise in the prevention and treatment of obesity
5. Develop an understanding for the role of sedentary behavior in the prevention and treatment of obesity

Expectations: Lecture materials and readings will be available at least one week prior to their presentation. You will be expected to go through these lectures and reading assignments and be prepared to take a 10-20 question quiz over each major topic and/or participate in a discussion board post. Discussion board posts must be completed 24 hours of completion of a topic and Quizzes must be completed within 48 hours of completion of a topic. You will have the opportunity to work ahead if time permits.

Criteria for Discussion Board Grading: Everyone will be expected to contribute in a timely fashion to each posted discussion topic. You will be required to post an original response and to respond to a minimum of two responses. You will have 24 hours to post your original response and to respond to others following the completion of a topic. Due dates will be clearly noted on Black Board and are listed in the syllabus. You are responsible for knowing the due dates of all discussion board posts. Approximately 30% of your final grade will be based upon your Discussion Board Responses.

Lectures: There will be at least one PowerPoint presentation for each topic. For many of these topics, there will also be a web link that will allow you to listen/watch me discuss the slides. Some PowerPoint presentations will have audio already associated with them. Some PowerPoint presentations will have notes associated with each slide and no audio associated with them.

Assignments:

1. Quizzes: 3 Quizzes, 20 points each
2. Discussion Boards: 6 discussion board topics, 20 points each
3. Required Videos: There will be approximately 21 videos that you will be required to watch. Each video is worth 10 points

Course Policies:

Plagiarism: “Plagiarism includes either presenting someone else’s words without quotation marks (even if you cite the source) or presenting someone else’s ideas without citing that source.” If you plagiarize, your instructor cannot evaluate your understanding of the topic. When paraphrasing from another source, at the very least the student should change the wording, sentence syntax, and order of ideas presented in the paper. Ideally, the student will integrate ideas from multiple sources while providing critical commentary on the topic in a way that clearly identifies whether words and ideas are those of the student or are from another source.

Plagiarism is one type of academic misconduct described in SIUE's Student Academic Code. University policy states that “Normally a student who plagiarizes shall receive a grade of F in the course in which the act occurs. The offense shall also be reported to the Provost.” The University policy discusses additional academic sanctions including suspension and expulsion from the University. Please review the SIUE policy regarding plagiarism at <http://www.siu.edu/policies/li6.shtml>.

Honor Code: All SIUE students are presumed upon enrollment to have acquainted themselves with and have an understanding of the Honor System. Therefore, it is a student’s responsibility to ask course instructors to clarify expectations for each assignment in order to be in compliance with the Honor System.

Students with Disabilities: Students needing accommodations because of medical diagnosis or major life impairment will need to register with Accessible Campus Community & Equitable Student Support (ACCESS) and complete an intake process before accommodations will be given. Students who believe they have a diagnosis but do not have documentation should contact ACCESS for assistance and/or appropriate referral. The ACCESS office is located in the Student Success Center, Room 1270. You can also reach the office by e-mail at myaccess@siue.edu or by calling 618.650.3726. For more information on policies, procedures, or necessary forms, please visit the ACCESS website at www.siu.edu/access.

SIUE Student Conduct Policy: According to University policy, students are expected to conduct themselves in an orderly and cooperative manner (refer to the SIUE Undergraduate Bulletin University Policies and Procedures).

Course Grading:Grading Scale:

	MAX Points		Grade	Percentage
Discussion Boards (6): 20 pts each	120 points		A	90-100%
Quizzes (3): 20 points each	60 points		B	80-89.99%
Required Videos (21): 10 points each	210 points		C	70-79.99%
Total points	390 points		D	60-69.99%
			F	<60%
NOTE: The final grade in this class is weighted. 85% of your final grade is based upon the Discussion Board and Quizzes. The other 15% of your grade is based upon the required videos.

Late Submissions: Please read the following section carefully as I have different policies for different tasks.

Discussion Board PowerPoint and Video Posts: Automatic 25% deduction. If not completed within 24 hrs after a deadline, you will receive zero for the assignment Required Videos, Discussion Board Comments and Responses: If you miss the deadlines for any of these items, you will receive a zero for that item. Late submissions will not be graded.

Quizzes: 1st late quiz, 25% deduction. All additional late quizzes will be subject to a 50% deduction. If not completed within 24 hrs, you will receive a zero for the quiz.

This is a fast paced class with a lot going on at once and it is your responsibility to be aware of all due dates. If there are changes to due dates, I will send out a daily announcement with all upcoming due dates.

Communication: All communication will be either email or zoom. I am willing to do Zoom meetings. On days that assignments are due, I will periodically check my emails (NOTE: I do not get email notifications via my electronic devices) and will respond as needed. I do not respond to emails after 8pm.

Discussion Boards: Student participation will take place through discussion board activities. Discussion board posts will be in a video format. You will record your response to a question, upload the video to TechSmith, create a “conversation” in your video and you will post a link to that “conversation” into the discussion board.

You will need to watch the responses of your fellow group members and you will be required to post a question/comment to at least two different group members. You will also be required to post a follow-up to at least two questions/comments that you get in regards to your original post. One of those follow-up response must be to my question/comment.

“Good Job”, “I agree with that comment”, or “I disagree with that comment” are not complete posts. You must provide justification for your responses to your classmate’s comments.

Discussion Board Grading Rubric:

Tips for taking Quizzes on Blackboard:

1. Please an internet connection use a connection that you trust (i.e. at home). Do NOT use public Wi-Fi to take a quiz. Do NOT take quizzes on tablets, iPads, or phones.
2. All quizzes will require the Respondus Monitor which will require you to have a WebCam and a good internet connection. If I am unable to see the video of your quiz, I may deduct points or assign a zero for that quiz.
3. Do not take the quiz until you are fully prepared. Although you can use your materials to take the quiz, the quizzes will have a time limit. You will not have time to look up every answer. You can expect to have ~90 seconds to answer each question.
4. Do NOT use the browsers back button use the BlackBoard navigation buttons.
5. Save your answer before moving to the next question.
6. You must click the “Save and Submit” button at the end of the test to submit your quiz for grading.

Content Folders: On Blackboard there is a content folder under “Coursework” for each topic. All reading materials, lecture slides, discussion board links, and assessment will be in that folder as well.
