

DISCUSSION: Relationship -1) Lesson to Unit AND 2) Importance of Lesson to Daily Life

- 1) A semicolon is part of knowing when to use semicolons and conjunctive adverbs 2) Knowing semicolon rules will make me a better writer

Self- Test Questions (Evaluation):

1. Do I know the definition of semicolon?
2. Does my semicolon connect only related ideas?
3. Does my semicolon show cause & effect?
4. Or does my semicolon show comparison of 2 like things?
5. Or does my semicolon show a time order relationship?

Tasks/Strategies:

- Use sentence strips to join like ideas (as a group)
- Practices in the book
- Read aloud "on board" exercises

Adapted from the Content Enhancement Series, The Lesson Organizer Routine, for use by Sturmski & Associates, 1997. Permission or use granted by B. Keith Lenz