

Southern Illinois University Edwardsville
School of Education
Health & Human Behavior

Tuition waivers accepted!

CI 519 GRADUATE COURSE
ADVENTURE OF THE AMERICAN MIND
&
CI 519 B GRADUATE COURSE
TEACHING WITH PRIMARY SOURCES (LEVEL 2)

These three credit graduate courses are offered through a partnership with the SIUE's Department of Teaching & Learning (formerly C&I) and Library of Congress Teaching with Primary Sources Program at SIUE. Students will discuss and engage in strategies for using primary sources to help with K-12 students' engagement, development of critical thinking and inquiry, and build content knowledge with the use of primary sources.

WHERE:

SIUE Edwardsville Campus/Online

WHEN:

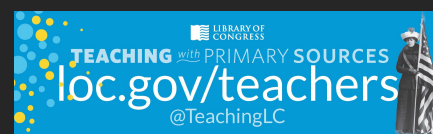

July 2 – August 4, 2018 Partially online

We will not meet every week. The course is partially online.

CI 519 & CI 519 B will both meet together at 9AM on 7/03/17)

REGISTER TODAY !

Teaching with Primary Sources at SIUE, <http://www.siu.edu/tps>

3 graduate credits
for each course

No textbooks required!

Materials will be on a flash drive.

Continued Support through the Teaching with Primary Sources Program at SIUE and the TPS Teachers Network!

ALL K-12 teachers, librarians, and media specialists are welcome!

Questions about course?

Contact Dr. Randy Smith

resmith@siue.edu

(618) 650-3434

or

Amy Wilkinson

amwilki@siue.edu

(618) 650-3777