Action Items:
There were no action items.

Unfinished Business:
There have been no volunteers for the Homecoming Committee.

Suggested revisions to the Faculty Senate Bylaws to allow for remote attendance at meetings were reviewed. The Open Meetings Act requires a body to have language specifically allowing remote attendance, but it only allows for it if the member is unable to attend in person due to personal illness or disability, employment purposes, or a family or other emergency. Concerns about the body determining what health conditions qualify were discussed, and it was suggested to create a form that allows a request for remote attendance to be sent through University Governance without disclosing confidential details. The amendment will be sent forward to the full Senate for approval.

New Business:
There was no new business.

Reports:
The University Planning and Budget Council (UPBC) report was posted to Teams and is attached.
The Faculty Development Council held an abbreviated meeting in October due to conflicts with Diversity Day presentations. The Teaching Excellence Award Committee (TEAC) still needs a representative from the College of Arts and Sciences as well as a Chair. A subcommittee will review Excellence in Undergraduate Education (EUE) applications using new criteria from the Provost Office. They will discuss the Continuous Improvement Conference (CIC) and Mid-Week Mentor program in November.

The Rules and Procedures Council discussed the remote attendance policy at their meeting in October.

The Welfare and Governance Council discussed merit rubrics using a three-point scale. They are considering making a questionnaire that would also collect some demographic information. It was suggested to have Council Chairs, the Black Faculty and Staff Association (BFSA), and Women’s Studies review the questions in advance to help identify any potential issues.

Rice shared that the Chancellor Search Advisory Committee work is almost complete.

Wrobbel is working on getting the restructuring committee together.

There were no other reports.

Adjournment:
The meeting adjourned at 3:46 pm.
