Reports

Ex-Officio Reports

SUCSAC: Linda Wense reported that the SUAA was lobbying on a gun control issue and some members voiced that gun control should not be dealt with by SUAA lobbyists. Linda followed up on a question brought to her earlier regarding the Building Mechanic position was being used to possibly do work above their skill/classification level. According to Tom Morelock, it is used for hiring below the journeyman level employee, and it is not intended to displace any of the crafts and trades. Nothing new was decided. It has been used for eight years. There was a discussion.

Personnel: No report.
SURT: No report.

Panel Reports

Negotiated and Prevailing: Todd Bartholomew reported that plumbers are still negotiating their contract.

Open Range: Alan Gaffney reported that a request was made through the newsletter for a volunteer for the Scholarship Selection Committee. Erica Vandiver volunteered to be on the committee. Alan Gaffney made a motion to accept Erica Vandiver as a member of the Scholarship Selection Committee from the Open Range constituency. Mike Hamil asked for a vote of approval for Erica Vandiver to fill the Scholarship Selection Committee Open Range seat. All approved.

Professional Staff: Jesse B. Harris, Jr. gave the floor to Keith Becherer. Keith recommended and made a motion for Michelle Welter from Student Affairs to fill the Professional Staff Senate seat left vacant when Keith became Vice President. Mike Hamil asked for a vote of approval for Michelle Welter to fill the remaining term of the Professional Staff Senate seat. All approved. The term will expire in 2013.

Satellite Campus Reports

Alton: Jackie Candela reported that September 13 is the Smile Committee’s celebration to welcome students, staff and faculty to the fall semester at the Alton campus.

E. St. Louis: Barbara Sams reported today is the beginning for a lot of the new programs, Head Start. Trio programs received board notification, so are funded for another year and lost 2 programs (Talent Search) and ten staff people and funding. The Charter Program has a new director Gina Washington.

Standing Committees

Fundraising committee
