

St. Louis Pizza & Wings Special Delivery

WHO: St. Louis Pizza & Wings

WHAT: St. Louis Pizza & Wings will be delivery food to President Obama and his family.

WHEN: Sunday, February 6, 2011. Super Bowl Sunday.

WHERE: The White House. St. Louis Pizza & Wings will fly to Washington D.C. with the ingredients for their pizza. There they will make their pizza and wings and bring it to the White House.

WHY: The President is the most influential person in the nation. If a success, the press coverage would be immense. St. Louis Pizza & Wings wants to show that even an important man who grew up with Chicago style pizza would like what they have to offer. Since Super Bowl Sunday is the most popular day for pizza places, St. Louis Pizza & Wings would like to take the opportunity to make sure the First Family enjoys their product.

HOW: An arrangement will be made with the President to fly out there and prepare food just for him and his family. The owners of St. Louis Pizza & Wings will board a commercial plane bearing the essentials of whatever the President and his family desire.

PHOTO OPPORTUNITIES: All media is invited for the departure of the plane to Washington, D.C. as well as the arrival. Security at the White House will not allow any media beyond the gates of the White House. Pictures and video will be taken of the president and sent to media outlets. Any additional media on this event will be decided by the President himself and his staff.
